Due to the land and climate, the firm has considerate to emulate a tropical ambient with palm trees, water mirrors, pools, waterfalls, and spaces destined to family recreation and leisure.

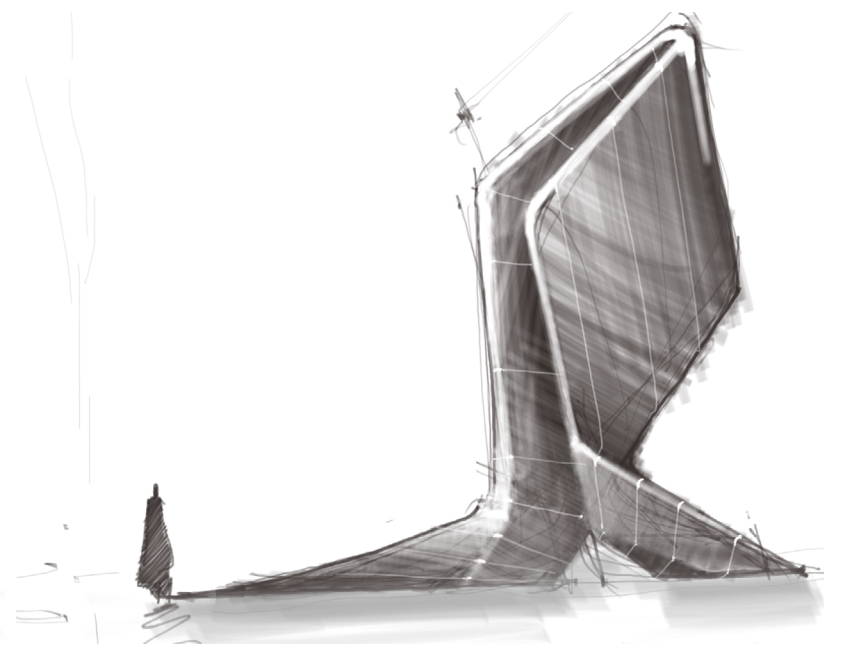

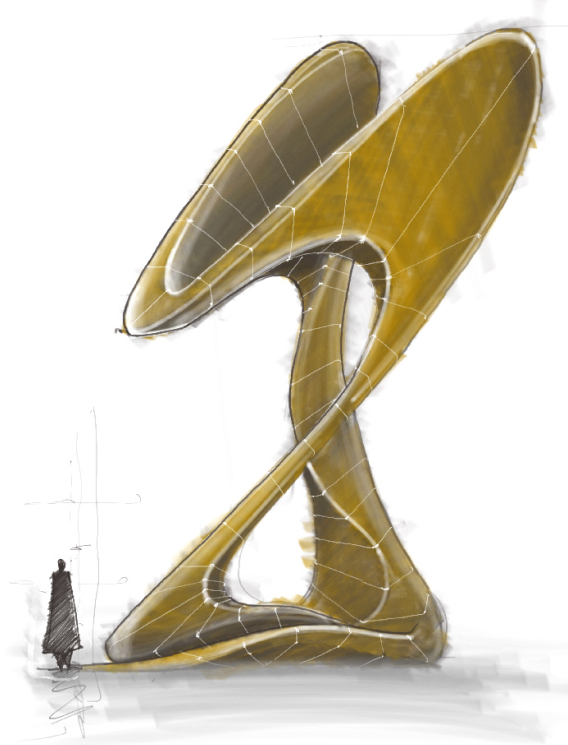

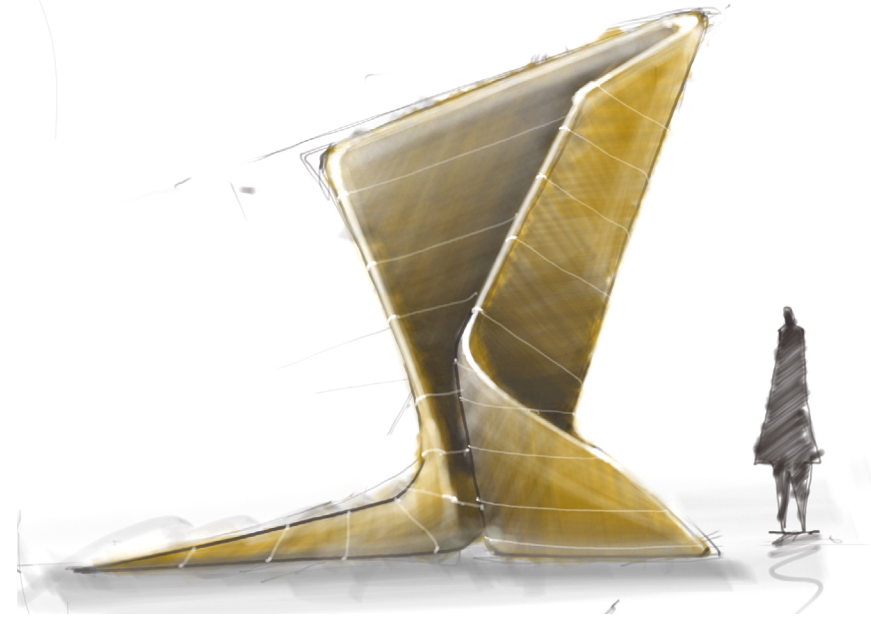

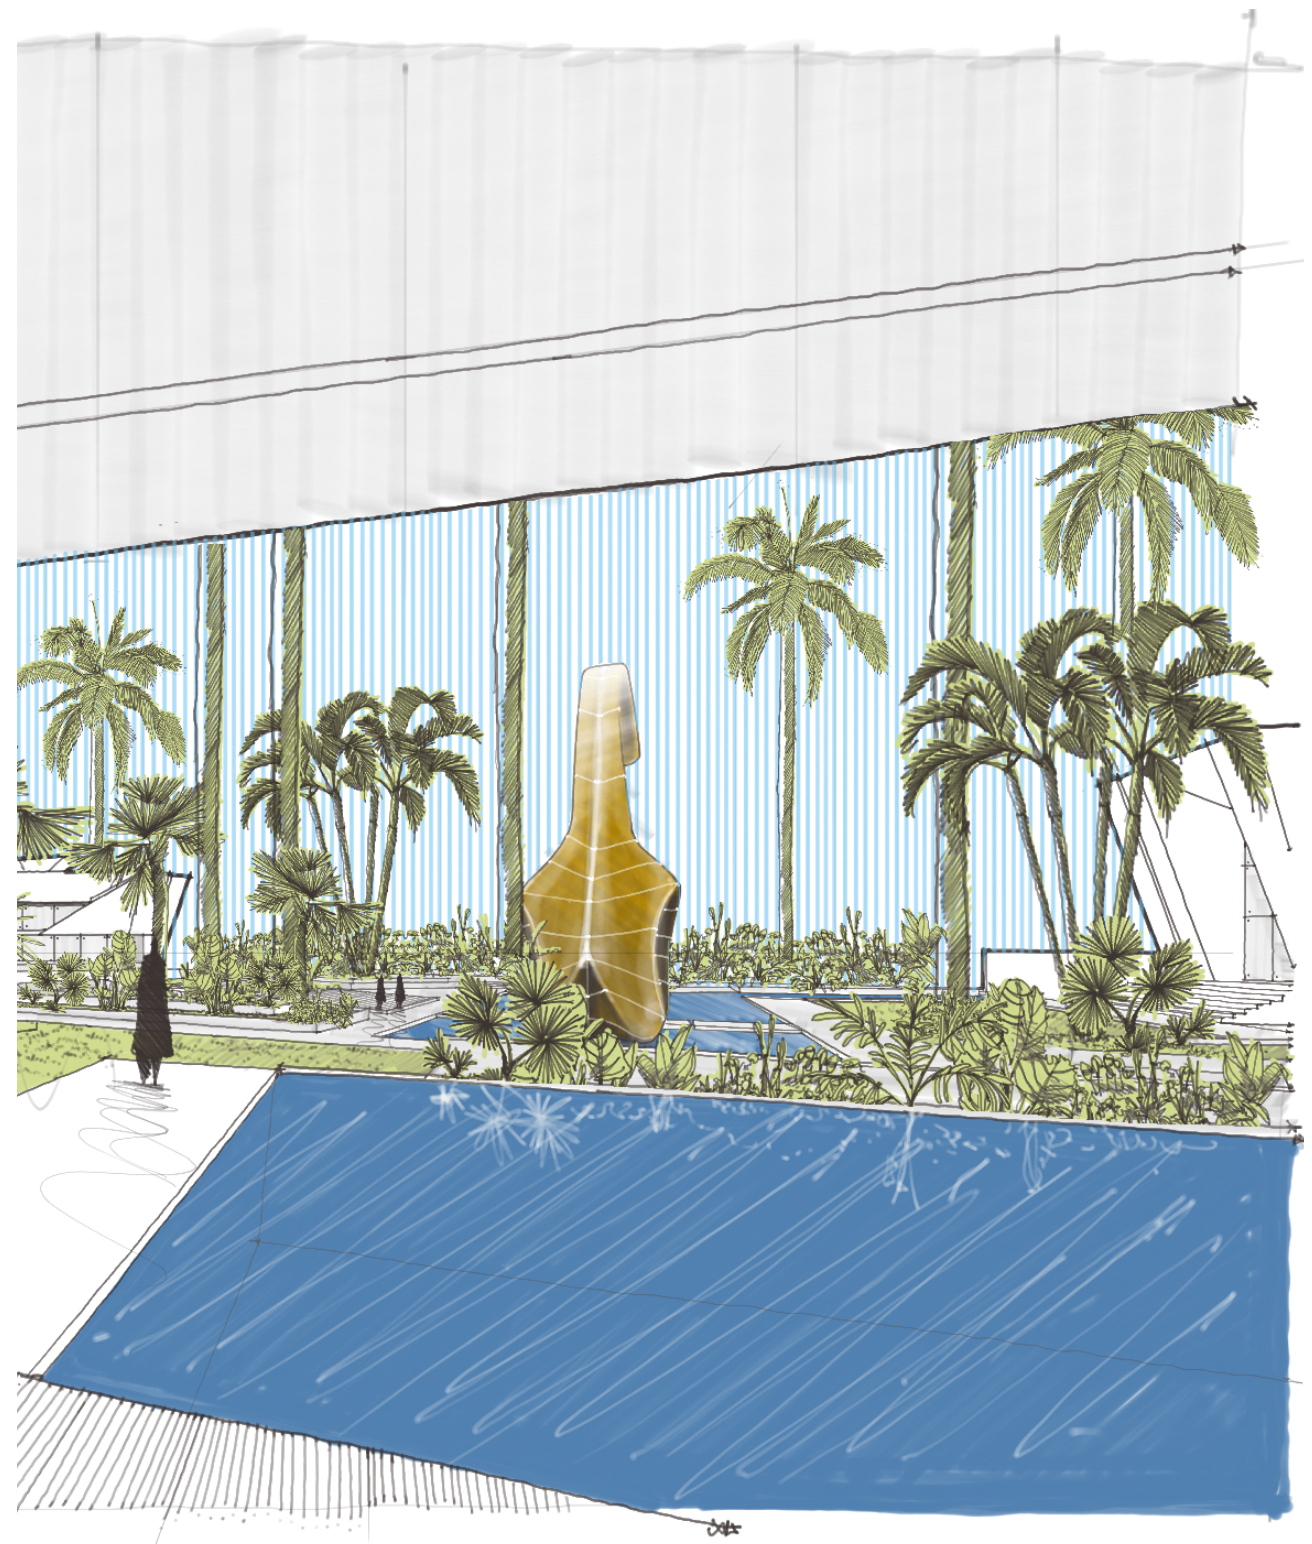

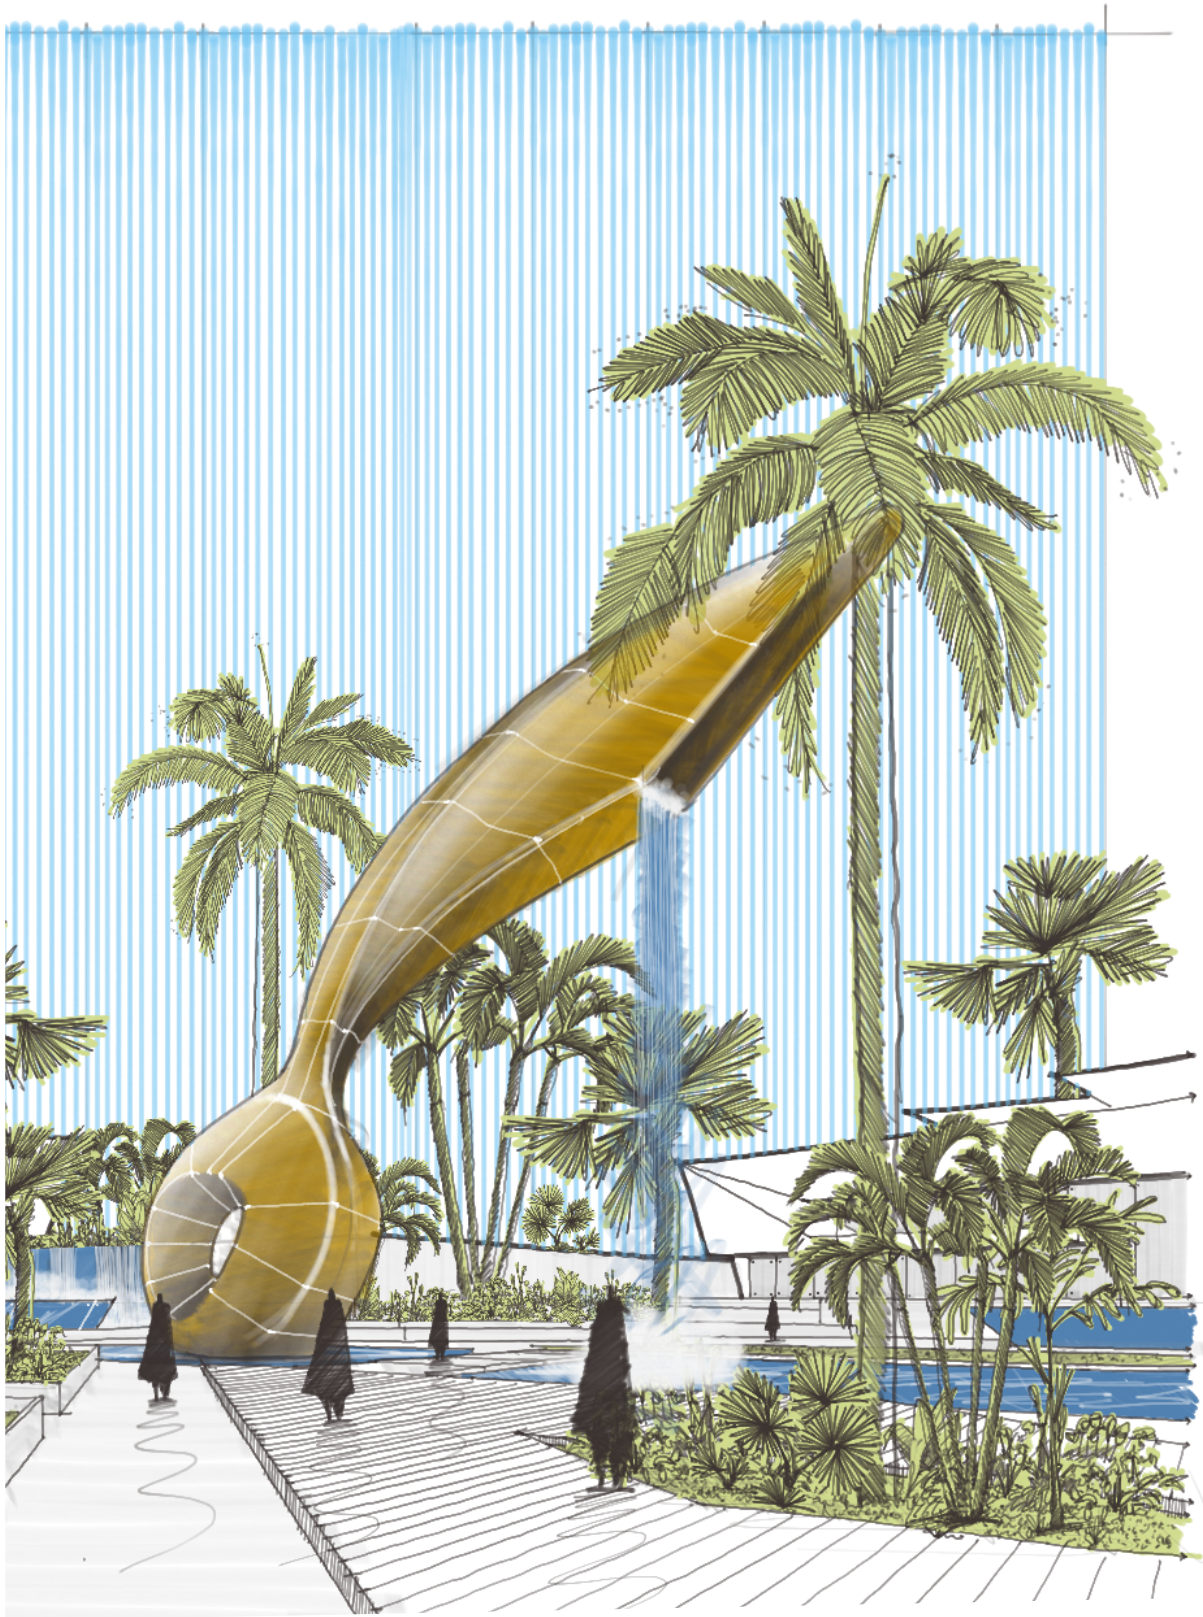

Seizing the plot area intended to be landscape, an essential element was taken care of, privacy, which is why we decided to separate recreation areas common areas from the villas.

The organic slopes help us create the illusion of separation and at the same time improve the design of the landscape bringing an escalated touch as well as provide privacy to each of the villas by tracing intricate paths through which you can appreciate the terrain and the characteristic modern design.
